NEW MULTI-BAY ETHERNET DOCKS FOR SKORPIO™ X3, FALCON™ X3, ELF™ AND LYNX™ MOBILE COMPUTERS

Overview

In order to increase the lifetime of our solutions and to guarantee long-term technical support for its fleet of mobile devices, Datalogic is announcing new part numbers for the Multi-Bay Ethernet Docks available for the Skorpio™ X3, Falcon™ X3, Elf™ and Lynx™ mobile computers.

Starting on February 18, 2014, the new Multi-Ethernet Docks will replace the previous models, which will be obsoleted once our stock is depleted. This change will affect standard as well as special products. The form factor and the appearance of the new docks are exactly the same as the former docks. The only change is internal due to component obsolescence requiring a new board.

In order to work properly, the new dock requires a Datalogic mobile computer running firmware version 1.72 or later (applicable to the Skorpio X3, Falcon X3 and Elf) or Lynx firmware 1.65 v50.04.53 C1 or later. Please note that mobile computers with firmware versions prior to the ones specified won't recognize the electronics of the new dock, while the newer firmware is compatible with both the old and new Ethernet docks.
